

Colour-in the early settlers sailing from Britain to New Zealand

Read about William Donahue as he boards a sailing ship, to travel to New Zealand.

Lorraine Orman
Children's Author

Most of her adult life Lorraine Orman has been reading, reviewing, promoting and writing books for children. Her first book for teenagers, Cross Tides, was published in 2004 after she retired from professional library work. It won the NZ Post Best First Book Award. It was followed by more books for teenagers and several books for younger readers.

More information about Lorraine's books is available on her website

www.story-go-round.net.nz

Find out more about sailing ships

New Zealand History online
Nga korero aipurangi o Aotearoa

Search for sailing ships at <http://www.nzhistory.net.nz/>

Find out more about this sailing ship at <http://www.nzhistory.net.nz/media/photo/reminisces-wanderer>

Search for sailing ships at http://find.natlib.govt.nz/primo_library/libweb/action/search.do?vid=TF